Executive Summary

As a continuation of the series of special online courses on Forestry Related Central Legislation for Assistant Conservator of Forests and Range Forest Officers exclusively for the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir, after the J&K Reorganization Act, 2019, the third training course was organized from 19th to 23rd October, 2020. A total of 60 participants participated in this training programme. The group consisted of 09 Deputy Conservator of Forests, 11 Assistant Conservator of Forests and 40 Range Forest Officers .

The deliberations began with the inauguration of the course on 19th October 2020 by Smt. Bharati, IFS, Inspector General of Forest, MoEF&CC wherein Sh. T. Rabi Kumar, IFS, APCCF from Jammu & Kashmir was present as Guest of Honour. Smt. Bharati applauded the efforts of the Academy for calling the best resource persons and conducting online courses that have become a need of the hour, given the COVID-19 related restrictions and precautions in traveling and assembly. She exhorted the participants to take maximum benefit of this opportunity, where eminent people would join the training programme from distant places despite their very busy schedules.

Shri Rabi Kumar, IFS, CCF (Central0, J&K expressed his gratitude to the Academy for conducting the series of courses, the first & second of which were highly appreciated by the participants. He hoped that this course would also be able to meet the expectations of the participants. He mentioned the need of generating UT specific case studies to make the training program more relevant to the officers. He stated the need to develop some Master Trainers from amongst the participants, who could further train the field staff of the Union Territory.

Shri Kunal Satyarthi, IFS, Principal, CASFOS, Dehradun, appreciated & congratulated the efforts of the authorities of J&K in restructuring the Indian Forest Act, 1927 which he felt was progressive compared to other States. According to him, this course has been unique as it included a variety of experts like serving and retired senior forest officers,academicians, bureaucrats,and leading lawyers in the country and that this course has been planned well and is touching upon almost all the Acts related to Forestry and Wildlife.

The inaugural session was followed by a session on the Relevance of CrPC to Forest Officers by Shri Kartik N Shukal, Advocate, High Court Maharashtra; Relevance of Indian Penal Code & Indian Evidence Act to Forest Officersby Dr. C. Ramesh, IFS, Lecturer, CASFOS, Dehradun; two sessions on Indian Forest Act, 1927 by Shri Kunal Satyarthi, IFS, Principal, CASFOS Dehradun; Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980 by Shri Sandeep Sharma, AIG, MoEF&CC; Wildlife (Protection)

Act, 1972 by Shri R.S. Thakur, IPS, Himachal Pradesh; Wildlife Crime Scenario and Investigation Under Wildlife (Protection) Act, 1972 by Shri Ritesh Sarothiya, Special Task Force MP Forest Department; Wetland Rules by Shri Ritesh Kumar, Director, Wetlands International South Asia, New Delhi; Judgements related to Forest & Environment by Shri Sanjay Upadhyay, Advocate, Supreme Court, New Delhi; National Green Tribunal Act, 2010: Court Orders by Shri Ritwick Dutta and Ms Kanika Sood, Advocates, New Delhi; Biological Diversity Act, 2002 by Shri Abhay Johari, IFS (Retd.),Guwahati; Forest Rights Act, 2006 by Ms. R. Jaya, Joint Secretary, Ministry of Tribal Affairs, New Delhi; FRA: Case Study by Shri A.K. Jha, IFS (Retd.). All the relevant reading material like bare Acts, Rules, and presentations etc. were provided to the participants about a week before commencing the training through Sharepoint, an online mode of sharing and accessing information. In addition, the hard copies of the bare Acts were sent to participants for reference purpose. This has enabled the participants to access the presentations even when intermittently the network connectivity was not very good. During the demo and pre-registration session held on 16th October, the participants were also briefed that given the limited time scheduled for each of the Acts, they should come prepared with the reading material, to make the best use of the time given.

All the sessions were highly appreciated by the participants, particularly the discussion sessions. However, a concern about the shortage of time for each of the Act was also raised and it was felt that at least half a day should have been allotted for each of the Act. This batch of attendees was particularly very interactive most of the time.

Some of the participants requested for more such thematic courses on issues like:

- Prosecution Module
- Special issues in JK UT such as hurdles in implementation of IFA, Forest (Conservation) Act etc.

The Valedictory Programme was presided by the Chief Guest Shri Rajpal Singh, IFS, Director, Directorate of Forest Education, Dehradun and Guests of Honour Shri Rabi Kumar, IFS, CCF (Central) J&K. and Shri Ramesh Kumar, IFS, CCF Jammu, UT of J&K . Both the Officers congratulated the participants and the organizers for making this training session successful and applauded its design which suited the requirements of the participants. Shri Rabi Kumar IFS, further added that since the ACFs & RFOs are at the cutting-edge positions, it was very important to have a thorough knowledge of the law and its implementation in the field. He said he was looking forward to more such UT specific courses in the future. He expressed his happiness over the discussion on the Forest Rights Act, 2006 that the field officers are now going to implement the same in the UT and a thorough knowledge of the Act would be essential for all the field officers.

Shri Rabi Kumar remarked that with the advent of technology it is now possible to train the officers to the new legal regime in the field of forestry and wildlife. He congratulated the organizers that despite the connectivity challenge, the participants could be imparted the best possible training and that all of them could complete it successfully. He exhorted the participants that now being alma-mater of the Academy, they may contact the academy and the resource persons without any hesitation for any further information. He also expressed his desire for further such courses specially designed for identified Master Trainers from amongst the participants who could further train the frontline staff of the Union Territory.He appreciated the efforts of the organizers and the resource persons in making this programme successful. He also mentioned that UT of J&K would be looking forward to conducting more theme-based courses in collaboration with CASFOS, Dehradun

Shri Kunal Satyarthi, IFS, Principal, CASFOS, Dehradun, profusely thanked all the organizers, resource persons, and the participants for making this training programme very successful and that the Academy would always be at the forefront in conducting such programmes on contemporary issues frequently in coming future.

The overall impact of the training has been very encouraging and positive. This is supported by the fact that the overall feedback score achieved for this training session was 93.45% which is on the higher side and corroborates the efforts taken by the organizers of the Academy and all the resource persons to make this programme a success.

Course Director's comments on participants' views about the strengths and weakness pertaining to the course

S. No.	Participants' views	Course Director's comments
	General
1.	Mostly the whole course was very fruitful and I would suggest some more courses of similar nature in future which would be practically helpful to the field staff. As what we learn in the books should be practically possible in the field as per circumstances	Noted. Regularly organizing such courses would depend on the request of authorities of UT of J&K
2.	After this pandemic of Covid 19 regular sessions at UT level should be organized with practical experience.
3.	I really appreciate and Very grateful to the CASFOS Team on behalf of J&K FOREST DEPTT for selecting the faculty with such vast experience and for meeting the objectives of the course.
4.	The training was very fruitful and informative as all the resource persons were highly qualified and efficient in their respective field and they were having the practical approach...These types of refresher course shall be regularly conducted by CASFOS on regular basis... These training courses should focus more on case study so that we will we have more practical approach on direct implementation of these Acts and rules on ground.
5.	It would be very fruitful if such courses are taken regularly at least once a year to update the knowledge of forest officers. Also time duration should be extended and if possible such courses should be conducted in a physical mode rather than online.
	Duration
6.	The course duration should be enhanced for one month or more instead of one week.	Matter concerns authorities of UT of J&K
7.	Between two lecture should be a bit break, Time of duration is enough but break is needed in between Two lectures.	Noted for future implementation
8.	Duration of interaction with trainees should be more as there is very less gap between two classes	Matter concerns authorities of UT of J&K
9.	It would be very fruitful if such courses are taken regularly at least once a year to update the knowledge of forest officers. Also time duration should be extended and if possible such courses should be conducted in a physical mode rather than online. 	Content
10.	More case study regarding Forest law and conservation law should be added and offline training mood will be more effective.	Matter concerns authorities of UT of J&K
11.	Almost all the topics of forest legislations have been covered. Some local acts should also be covered by engaging local resource persons of the area	Noted for future implementation but training a local statute should be covered by UT of J&K itself
